

Hawk Quest

July 19, 2008 at 7pm

CULTURAL DAY
Ute Indian Museum
9:00am to 9:00pm

FREE ADMISSION
to museum 1- 9pm

- Indian vendors
- Indian fry bread
- Have your picture taken with an eagle
- Flute playing
- Free flute class 4-5:30pm
- Silent Auction

The Ute Indian Museum presents Hawk Quest, a one of kind outdoor program allowing the audience the opportunity and experience to view live birds of prey at close range. The program includes a bald eagle, falcon, owl and a hawk. Kin Quitugua, a master falconer will share the importance of the raptor's place in our ecosystem.

CJ Brafford, a Lakota Sioux and director of the Ute Indian Museum along with Mr. Roland McCook an Uncompahgre Ute, will share an Indian perspective to the relation of these birds.

Admission to Hawk Quest Program

Member	Non-Member
$5.00 adult	$8.00 adult
$3.00 student ages 6-16	$5.00 student ages 6-16
Children under 5 free

Join the Friends of the Ute Museum and receive membership discounts

- Free admission for family & guest
- 10% discount in gift store
- discount on events & classes
- newsletter

For more information call
(970) 249-3098

MONTROSE
VISITORS AND CONVENTION BUREAU

HISTORY Colorado
UTE INDIAN MUSEUM

Embracing Our History...Preserving Our Heritage

Tues-Sat 9-4:30 • 249-3098 • 17253 Chipeta Road (Just South of Montrose)